

Application Instructions and Deadline Signature Page

Minimum Requirements:

- A minimum LSAT score of 160 is required to be considered for the Jere F. White, Jr. Fellows Program.
- We ask that you only apply if you will be able to make your final law school decision by the time the Fellow is selected, approximately early March. This is out of consideration for the other fellowship applicants.

How to Apply:

- Step 1: To apply for the Jere F. White, Jr. Fellows Program, applicants must first submit an application for admission to Cumberland School of Law's fall 2025 entering first year class.
- Step 2: Once the entering fall 2025 application is submitted through LSAC, applicants may submit the required application documents listed below to lawadm@samford.edu on or by Friday, January 10, 2025.

Required Application Documents:

1. Essay: How do you view law as an avenue for service? (500 words or less)
 - a. Also identify one area of service in which you wish to participate during your second and third year of law school. The area of service should address an identifiable community need.
2. Personal Statement: Copy of the personal statement you submitted with your Cumberland School of Law application
3. Resume: Copy of the resume you submitted with your Cumberland School of Law application
4. Service/Volunteer Work Resume (if not included in your regular resume)
5. Signed Signature Page

Selection Process:

- The deadline for applications is Friday, January 10, 2025.
- Finalists will be contacted in early February to arrange mandatory interviews in late February (TBD whether in-person or virtual).
- The 2025 Jere F. White, Jr. Fellow will be named in early March.

Certification:

I hereby certify I understand the items above and the work submitted with this application is my own, except as noted by work cited.

Print Full Name

Applicant's Signature

In accordance with applicable federal and state laws, such as Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act and ADA Amendments, the University does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, race, color, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, religion, or any other protected status under federal, state or local law applicable to the University, in its education policies, programs, and activities, in its admissions policies, in employment policies and practices, and all other areas of the University. As a faith-based institution, the University is exempted from certain laws and regulations concerning discrimination.